

FRANCOEUR LAW OFFICE

Were you served the food you are allergic to by Panera in Massachusetts?

In connection with ongoing litigation, we are investigating instances between January 28, 2012 and the present in which allergic customers of Panera restaurants in Massachusetts were served the food to which they were allergic after notifying Panera of an allergy.

If you or your child:

- 1) Notified Panera of an allergy and thereafter received food that contained the identified allergen
- 2) Between January 28, 2012 and the present
- 3) At a Panera located in Massachusetts

Please contact us at:

Mary.Vargas@steinvargas.com and Laurel@Francoeurlaw.com

Please note that this is not intended to solicit clients. Stein & Vargas, LLP and the Francoeur Law Office are interested in talking with individuals who may have information relative to ongoing litigation.